DETAILED ACTION

Reasons for Allowance

- The allowed claims are 1 and 2.
- The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The claim as a whole including the limitation of two opposite grooves formed in an inner wall of a center lengthwise hole that defines a definite direction for the cable constrictor to fit in and also prevent the terminal base from rotating randomly is not shown in the prior art of record, nor is it obvious to combine with the prior art of record.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Conclusion

- Effective May 1, 2003, the United States Patent and Trademark Office has a new Commissioner for Patents address. Correspondence in patent related matters must now be addressed to:
